"FOUR HORSEMEN" STIRS EMOTIONS SAYS MAYOR

That Metro's presentation of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," the Rex Ingram production adapted for the screen by June Mathis, rivals the greatest theatrical offerings of the legitimate stage, was the opinion of John Galvin, Mayor of Cincinnati, after twice viewing the picture in New York. This screen masterpiece is now showing at the Opera House. "It is the greatest picture I have ever seen," declared Mr. Galvin. "Its dramatic power is something wonderful and it affected me just as much as though I were witnessing a spoken performance. It stirs the emotions and I am not ashamed to say that parts of that picture brought a lump to my throat and tears to my eyes."

"Pictures like 'The Four Horsemen' are the greatest kind of advertisement to show that the movies are capable of just as wonderful dramatic effects as the speaking stage. It shows what tremendous things the big companies of the motion picture industry are doing to advance the standard of pictures."

MORE WATSON VENOM

Says Few Wilsonites Want Ford in Senate.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Attempts to keep Senator Newberry, Republican, of Michigan out of the senate were charged by Senator Watson, Democrat, of Georgia, today to "left over Wilsonites," in and out of the senate. Attacking Henry Ford, contestant for Mr. Newberry's seat, Senator Watson said the real issue in the election contest was the League of Nations controversy.

Mr. Watson said that there were a few "left overs" in the senate, but predicted that they would not remain "when the people get another whack at them." The Georgia senator declared it ought not to seem more strange to have two Republican senators from Michigan than two Democrats from his own state.

SUDDENLY they have all grown up and left her—the babies she used to tuck in bed at night. The old house is empty and silent. All have forgotten her. Her birthdays pass unnoticed.

Each child has embarked on a drama of his own. Loves, ambitions, temptations carry them away. There are moments of laughter and comedy, romance, adventure, tragedy. The story of their lives sweeps you along.

Your life—your home—your mother—as they might have been or as they are, "THE OLD NEST" will awaken deep in your heart memories of the mother to whom you ran with your childish troubles.

Never before has the screen touched with such beauty and dramatic force a subject which finds an echo in the lives of every one of us. One of the most heart-grIPPING dramatic stories ever narrated.

"THE OLD NEST" Rupert Hughes' Heart Gripping Story of Home

TO EVERY MAN, WOMAN & CHILD IN ABBEVILLE:

"THE OLD NEST," a motion picture made by Goldwyn from the story by Rupert Hughes, will be the attraction at the OPERA HOUSE Monday and Tuesday, November 28th and 29th.

Every reasonable effort has been made to tell each and every citizen of Abbeville, including the children, that this picture is to be shown here the first two days of next week.

These efforts have been based upon the unquestionable fact that "THE OLD NEST" is one of the two greatest motion pictures ever shown in this city.

It is the part of good business for a theatre to exploit any picture it may have for presentation. But there are times when the spirit of salesmanship fades into insignificance. This is one of those extraordinary times. And the Management says to you, in sincerest good faith, that it would be doing you an injustice not to beseech you to see this masterpiece of the motion picture art—"THE OLD NEST."

Whatever your life may have been, this picture will wrap itself around your heart. It won't simply appeal to you. It will grab you up, as if it had arms; it will amuse and tickle you and it will make you cry. And, when at last it bids you a highly cheerful adieu, it will leave with you the sweetest, cleanest, most thoughtful feeling the human heart and mind can ever know.

It isn't stacy. It isn't spooky. It isn't churchy and it isn't sexy. It's simply a great, big, soul-stirring story of the life that every human being lives and knows, presented in plain, logical fashion.

Folks in the motion picture industry are proud of it beyond words. They want everybody to see it because it so perfectly exemplifies what they should like every picture made to be.

Yours sincerely,
J. A. VERCHOT, Manager Opera House.
